Five new restaurants you should check out now

Etaru

If you love Zuma, you're going to love Etaru.

Rainer Becker, co-founder and creator of Zuma restaurants worldwide and Roka London, collaborated with Roka London Group Executive Chef Hamish Brown to create Etaru.

Sushi and sashimi lead the menu along with hot Japanese dishes and plenty of robata. Start off with Roka London's signature yellowtail sashimi with yuzu truffle dressing or the tuna tartare made with oscietra caviar. Then move on to grilled seafood from the robata, such as charcoal-grilled scallop skewers, snapper, salmon teriyaki, black cod marinated in yuzu miso and grilled tiger prawns. There are also meat dishes from the grill, from spicy tobanjan-glazed baby back ribs to lamb cutlets with Korean spices.
