

WADING IN: JUST HATCHED

DEBUTS TO PERUSE

(SOUTH)

ETARU

HALLANDALE BEACH

Modern Japanese robata-yaki cuisine collides with fresh South Florida vibes at Etaru, situated just steps from the sand and with sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean. Floor-to-ceiling windows, ipe-wood tables and limestone floors create an earthy, Asian-inspired atmosphere. While classic dishes like raw sashimi and robata-grilled black cod elevate Etaru's main menu, culinary counterweights such as the Etaru burger with shitake ketchup anchor the beach bar's lineup. Etaru, which opened this fall, serves brunch and dinner in three distinct ecosystems: the main dining room, the ground-level beach club and the bar. etarurestaurant.us

THE BEVY

NAPLES

The Bevy welcomes a diverse crowd and lures clientele with signature cocktails and New American cuisine from executive chef Michael Voorhis. The centerpiece of the bistro is its bright modern bar, which features inventive drinks like the Cedar Fire Old Fashioned, made with smoke from freshly lit cedar planks. Flanking the bar are open-air courtyards for

Above: Robata-grilled tiger prawns at Etaru